

How to practice the Czech language: tips for multilingual children attending kindergarten

1 Children's theaters

- Říše loutek: www.riseloutek.cz
- Damúza: www.damuza.cz
- Minor: www.minor.cz

2 Family centers

Family centers provide a platform for parents on maternity leave to spend time with their children, meet other parents, communicate with them, and help each other.

<https://sitprorodinu.cz/rodina-v-centru/seznam-clenskych-mc/>

3 Children and youth centers

They run centers for pre-school children (as an alternative to kindergartens):

- <https://www.volnycaspraha.cz/pro-rodice/centra-pro-predskolni-deti>

They also offer many free-time activities:

- <https://www.ddmp Praha.cz/>

4 Children's programs on Czech Television and Czech Radio

Týna and Mína – videos and worksheets + materials specifically for Ukrainian children

- <https://edu.ceskatelevize.cz/stupen-vzdelani/predskolni> more programs on Czech Television and Czech Radio (in Czech):

- <https://www.ceskatelevize.cz/ivysilani/kategorie/4118-pro-deti/>
- www.decko.ceskatelevize.cz
- www.mujrozhlas.cz/pro-deti

5 Czech language courses – offered by non-profit organizations (usually for children 5+ years old):

InBáze club: <https://inbaze.cz/en/regular-programs/>

6 Online language learning tools for children

- Aplikace Včelka: www.vcelka.cz
- Čeština na druhou (for children 4 to 12 years old):
<https://www.cestina2.cz/app/>
- MovApp (Czech-Ukrainian): <https://www.movapp.cz/>

